Orange Everyday automatically opened for Orange Advantage customers

A quick reminder - for Orange Advantage loan applications, we will open an Orange Everyday account for customers following formal approval. There is no need for customers to open an Orange Everyday account themselves.

Introducing Apple Pay

ING DIRECT customers with an Orange Everyday account will now be able to use their Apple device to make day-to-day payments in an easy, secure, fast and convenient way. Apple Pay is easy to set up via the ING DIRECT app that can be downloaded from the App Store.

Family Support Policy: Providing guarantor income and Assets & Liabilities

Please note that where an application is submitted under our family support policy, we require the guarantor's income and assets and liabilities details to be provided in all cases, even where there is no reliance on a guarantor's income. These details are required to provide a clear view of the guarantor's financial position (evidence of income is usually only required where servicing support is required).
