Tips on completing our Commercial Loan Application form

When completing the commercial loan application form, remember to:

- Complete the Fee Authority (Commitment fee) - applications will not progress to assessment where the fee authority section is not completed. It's important to note, a commitment fee of $2,000 is charged on receipt of all new commercial loan applications. Where the total new borrowing is more than $1 million, the outstanding portion of the commitment fee will be charged at settlement.
- Ensure all parties (Borrowers and Guarantors) have signed and completed the Declaration section.
- Complete the Assets and Liabilities section for each applicant and/or individual guarantor. Note a separate Assets and Liabilities schedule is required for applicants residing at a different address.

Following these handy tips will help to avoid assessment delays.
